BA SOCIAL WORK/BA EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION AND CARE

At HAWK in Hildesheim, the study programmes Early Childhood Education and Care (ECEC) and Social Work are closely connected to each other as practice-oriented professions. Therefore, our interdisciplinary course programme taught in English combines the solution of social problems based on the principles of social justice and human rights from the perspective of social work with focus on pedagogical work with children and families based on research and development from the perspective of ECEC.

SEMESTER PROGRAM IN ENGLISH – SUBJECT SPECIFIC OFFERS

Interdisciplinary Seminars

- Gender & Culture (3 ECTS) – summer/winter
The focus of the seminar is on exchanging ideas about personal perceptions and professional experiences related to gender and culture.
- Improvise! English Theater in Easy English (3 ECTS) – summer/winter
"DARE TO FAIL!" and "SAY YES!" are two of the basic rules in Improvisation Theater. It might give you new ideas about yourself and others.
- Europe-Excursion (3 ECTS) – summer/winter
Dare to look beyond the European horizon!

Focus on Social Work

- Social Work in Germany (3 ECTS) – summer/winter
Let's talk about the Code of Ethics, the vision of sustainable development and the responsibility of social workers due to a change of perspective and human rights.
- Social Work with Refugees (3 ECTS) – summer/winter
The main topics of this course are the possibilities and limits of social work in the context of forced migration with a special focus on a critical-reflective approach.
- Social Welfare and Social Work in a Local and Global Context (3 ECTS) – summer/winter
The module deals with social policy and social work organisation in an international context on the basis of a comparative perspective.

Focus on ECEC

- Children's Perspectives on Childhood, Play and Learning (3 ECTS) – summer/winter
This module will give some insights into different educational systems in several European countries and discuss recent developments in research on and with children.
- Learning Areas in ECEC: Introduction to the HAWK Workshops (3 ECTS) – summer/winter
This module introduces didactic approaches to Early Childhood Education developed at HAWK Hildesheim. The students participate in workshops on language development, aesthetic education, and other topics.

Practice Placement

Students will be placed in kindergartens with bilingual programs in Hildesheim or Hannover. The placement is combined with a weekly seminar, where students reflect on their experiences, discuss approaches to ECEC in German kindergartens and get tuition on tasks and assignments.

SEMESTER PROGRAM IN ENGLISH – INTERDISCIPLINARY OFFERS

Intercultural Training (3 ECTS)

Intercultural encounters can lead to conflicts due to different perspectives or biases – or they can be profitable! The training creates understanding for each other and promotes intercultural competence. The approach is diversity-oriented and takes into account not only cultural but also other personal characteristics.

German Language Course (4 ECTS)

Before the start of the lecture period, the international students attend an intensive language course in order to be prepared in the best possible way not only for the lectures of the faculty, but also for life in Germany. During the semester, they can additionally participate in weekly German lessons at different levels. The language courses are free of charge.

The offer of interdisciplinary courses is subject to change each semester. Further courses may be offered such as "Academic Writing" (3 ECTS) or "Germany and the Germans" (3 ECTS).

ORIENTATION AND EXCURSION PROGRAM

The International Office provides a buddy-program. Buddies are German students who meet incoming students at Hildesheim railway station and who help them during the first days to find their way around town and to settle in.

To ensure a smooth arrival, the International Office also provides assistance with all necessary formalities including amongst others registration at the City Hall, residence permits, questions about visas, the opening of bank accounts and health insurance.

In addition, the International Office organizes several events and trips for incoming students throughout the semester. Exchange students will get to know fellow students as well as the city of Hildesheim during an orientation week and will also have the opportunity to visit the towns of Holzminden and Göttingen where other HAWK faculties are based.

Besides vibrant university towns, Lower Saxony also offers a beautiful landscape which can be explored on guided hikes through the Harz National Park. Visits to local sights as well as to the opera or the theater will give the opportunity to dive into the historical and cultural landscape of the region. To bring international students together, the International Office also holds international Easter and Christmas celebrations and regular country-themed evenings. The "Café International", held every other week and organized by students for students, completes the program for incoming students.
